Dear Islanders,

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your commitment to Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, especially during this turbulent and rapidly changing year.

Your generosity always amazes me, and this year, so many of you showed extraordinary concern for our students as we navigated through a semester that was much different than anything we could have expected. I appreciate the messages of support and encouragement from you as we adjusted to the COVID-19 pandemic, and I know we will be stronger because of your commitment to us.

Your generosity allows us to sustain top-quality academic programs and to provide scholarships to high-achieving students. Your continuous support becomes more important every year as we strive to increase our role in educating first-generation college students, developing future leaders and working with our community to ensure sustainable economic growth.

We are so proud of the positive impact we have on our community, state, and nation, as well as the lives of our students and their families. The Island University cannot do it without you. We are deeply grateful to partner with you on these important initiatives.

Thank you once again for helping us make an Islander Impact at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. We look forward to continuing our partnership with you and furthering our goal of creating an island of innovation, inspiration and leadership for the future of our region.

Sincerely,

KELLY M. MILLER, Ph.D.

President & CEO, Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi

Dear Islanders, Supporters, and Friends,

I am truly honored and proud to serve as the current President of the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Foundation. Thanks to the overwhelming support of our founding members, past board members, donor and community leaders, we are making a lasting impact on the lives of students attending our Island University despite the many unforeseen hurdles we are currently facing. It is in difficult times like these that we must remain steadfast in the commitment to our mission of fostering the growth, quality and efficacy of the University, and I am pleased to report that the Foundation now manages $47 million in its endowment. Through these funds, the Foundation makes tremendous and strategic contributions to the development of the University by funding scholarships, chairs and professorships, scientific research and improvements to classroom technology. While we work together in the face of adversity, we want to continue to celebrate the great achievements of our University, including attaining R2 status which validates our capabilities as a premier research institution and allows us to continue to innovate, it is your ongoing support that is imperative to help our students continue their paths to graduation, and integral to further strengthening our influential reach as a premiere research institution.

Under the leadership of Dr. Kelly M. Miller, President and CEO of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, we continue our unwavering commitment to ensure every student's success, break down educational barriers and solidify the prosperous partnership between the Coastal Bend and the University. Our commitment guarantees that the education and experience provided to our students shines through their Islander Impact. As Chairman of American Bank, I see this affirmed every day, as we employ many bright, young students from the Island University. Some of these students may not have had the educational opportunities that have led to their success without the generosity of our donors. Working alongside Dr. Miller, we have the pleasure of witnessing our graduates enter the workforce as teachers, innovators, engineers, nurses, artists and business leaders who create positive change and achieve success in our community and the world beyond.

The Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Foundation sincerely thanks you for all you do for the Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, its students and the entire Islander community.

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN B. WALLACE

President, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Foundation

Jazmine Flores: THE BEGINNING OF A FAMILY LEGACY

A first-generation college student, Jazmine Flores came to Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi from a small town south of Houston to study finance with a focus in management information systems.

She chose the Island University because of scholarships she received – including the Jessie Frances Neal Foundation Scholarship – which cover the entirety of her college costs. She still remembers the day she learned she would be receiving her scholarship.

“The first thing I did was call my mom and cry,” said Flores, who is now in her senior year. “I didn’t want to be a financial burden to my family. When I received this news, I knew it was an opportunity I couldn’t pass up.”

Flores said her father, originally from Mexico, dropped out of school to provide for his family.

“My dad told me he never imagined having a daughter attending a university, and he’s thrilled I’m able to do so,” she added. “I will be the first Flores in my family to graduate with a college degree, which is a huge honor and responsibility. Now, my little sister and cousins are always asking me about school and get excited to tell me where they want to go and what they want to do.”

One of Flores’ favorite memories as an Islander was when she received her class ring.

“The importance of my class ring is massive,” Flores said. “I remember waiting so my parents could put my ring on me for the first time after the ring ceremony. They are my biggest supporters and motivators.”

Flores is incredibly thankful to Mrs. Neal for making an investment in her career and future. Mrs. Neal is an iconic Texas businesswoman and philanthropist who has provided scholarships to Islander business students. She has helped 28 Islander students graduate, with 30 more currently receiving funding as they work toward their degrees. In recognition of her outstanding contributions to the Island University, Mrs. Neal was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters during the university’s Spring 2019 commencement ceremony. This recognition is in tribute to her dedication to furthering the accessibility of higher education for young leaders, as well as her commitment to education as evidenced through her own determination and success in becoming a businesswoman and reflects the values that we hold at A&M-Corpus Christi, the state of Texas, and the United States of America.

Mrs. Neal, who has spent more than five decades working in the oil industry, serves as inspiration for Flores, who plans to enter the business industry as a financial advisor upon her graduation in December 2020.

“I see Mrs. Neal as a mentor. She’s so kind and is always interested in the lives and success of us Neal Scholars,” Flores said. “She is making an investment in us, and I hope one day I can make an impact comparable to hers.”

*The importance of my class ring is massive...
I remember waiting so my parents could put my ring on for the first time after the ring ceremony.*

I am so happy to be able to contribute in some small way to the success of our future leaders in this great community, my hometown. I moved away for 18 years, but my heart remained here, and this is my small way to help this community be the best it can be.

My scholarship helped me realize that people believe in me, and in receiving it, that I am being recognized for something special. This made me want to work harder and do more for the University. It also makes me feel like the University is definitely willing to help find resources to help its students.

I was lucky enough to be a recipient of the READY Grant. That money made sure that I don't have to pick up a second or third job; it made sure I had food on my table and gas in my car to get to school. It really focuses on making sure that the student is well taken care of and that we're able to give 100% of ourselves at school.

These scholarships have allowed me to spend more time focusing on my studies by alleviating some of the hours that I would have spent working. Being able to focus more time on my schoolwork has greatly contributed to maintaining a 4.0 GPA thus far and making the Dean's List every semester. Each of these accomplishments were goals I set for myself before coming to the university.

Being on a scholarship has made a huge difference for me. I feel like a heavy weight was lifted off my family's shoulders, and my family is everything to me. I work hard every day for them, and now I feel like I have a bright future ahead of me.

I started my career at a junior college and one of the biggest goals they had for me there was to play basketball at a high level and keep my grades up so I would qualify for a scholarship. Getting a scholarship was a great goal because it meant I made it both on the court and in school. My brother went to A&M-Corpus Christi, and all I heard about was how great an experience he had. I thought one day, that was going to be me too. The scholarship I received and having a spot on this team made it happen. I love this school and wouldn't want to be anywhere else.
